

Center Stage Arts in Health has created a cache of creative support for our healthcare community.

Visit <https://sites.psu.edu/centerstage/> to engage with the arts during this challenging time.

We offer:

- Videos of our Center Stage musicians who have created performances just for you.
- Visual art to soothe your soul.

Coming soon:

- This year's edition of Wild Onions.
- Simple art projects to inspire, create, and learn something new.
- PSCI patients, caregivers, and staff may participate in virtual workshops led by teaching artists.
- Repository of other arts resources and offerings that are available locally and nationally.

Check back regularly as we will continue to add to this page: <https://sites.psu.edu/centerstage/>
