

A day spent playing outdoors is a great way to get exercise. Chasing a ball, riding a bike, playing tag or visiting the playground beats watching TV any day! Turn off the TV or computer screen and head outdoors to celebrate and reconnect with nature.

For more information on bringing healthy choices to life visit:
med.psu.edu/PROwellness